Patrol Autos, Office Joined As Experiment

Cost of $4000-$5000 May Be Requested In New Budget

Installation of a two-way police radio system in the sheriff's office started today and will be completed within a week, according to Sheriff James J. McGrath.

The system, which will enable the sheriff's patrol cars to broadcast as well as receive messages from the central radio station at the Redwood City office, is being installed on an experimental basis, he explained.

If the system proves satisfactory in tests, it will be included in the sheriff's budget to be submitted to the board of supervisors, McGrath said.

WOULD FINISH JAIL

McGrath also will recommend completion of the unfinished third story of the county jail, possibly as a PWA project, he said. The jail is now seriously overcrowded, he pointed out.

Cost of the radio system, he estimated, will be between $4000 and $5000.

"I have argued against a radio patrol system for the sheriff's office in the past," he explained, "but the people in the outlying territory seem to want such service and we are going to test it thoroughly.

"We want radio equipment that will be absolutely efficient for the entire rural area," he said. "We will study the cost and results before making a recommendation. What happens after that depends on the county executive and the board of supervisors."

DIFFICULTY SEEN

McGrath anticipated difficulties in the eliminating radio reception "dead spots" in certain areas on the coast.

He pointed out that with radio communication between the Redwood City headquarters and deputies at widespread points, including Pescadero, Half Moon Bay and Colma, the office would be in a position to speed its work in answering emergency calls and in capturing criminals.

JUNGLE THRILLER AT SEQUOIA

Dorothy Lamour, beautiful Jungle siren of "The Hurricane," will reappear on the Fox Sequoia Theater screen today and Saturday in "Her Jungle Love," a technicolor action thriller in which she is co-starred with Ray Milland. Peter Lorre will once again be seen as the sinister Oriental sleuth in "Mr. Motto's Gamble" on the same program.

MANY MOUNTED ENTRIES LISTED FOR ANNUAL EVENT

Horses Galore Due in Saturday's March Preceding Pet Show

That this year's Pet Show Parade may have more mounted entries than ever before was indicated today when Parade Chairman James M. Eva listed the definite entries and disclosed that there are good prospects for more. The parade will be held Saturday, beginning on Broadway at Sequoia High School at 2 p. m., and proceeding through the business section to the city hall grounds, where the show will be held.

Youngest rider in the parade likely will be Sugar Steinberg of Atherton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Steinberg. Sugar, who is not yet six, will drive her pony hitched to a show buggy.

Not much older is 6-year-old Lawrence Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keller, who will be astride his shetland pony.

Oldest entrant may be Dan Wood, veteran horseman who will be in the line of march again. He is nearly 80 years of age.

Mounted groups will be supplied by the Westgate School, with children as riders; by the H. & H. Ranch, which will have 12 mounted men in addition to a four-horse team of painted ponies and by the Giannini Ranch of Atherton, which will enter 14 riders.

The Giannini Ranch also will enter four mules drawing a wagon and two pinto ponies, Eva was informed.

Edward Boicelli plans to enter a black team and float, on which will ride two girl accordionists. Individual riders already listed include Ruth Warner, Madelyn Holt, Mrs. A. W. Pike and Cheerie Keller. Eva said he expected at least 50 horses to be in the parade.

A score of other entries also have been promised. Included are the San Mateo County Boy Scout Band, the McKinley School Band, the McKinley School Drum and Bugle Corps, floats by the Eagles, Occidental Dairy, Kiwanis, Lions and Exchange Clubs; the Business and Professional Women's Club; Tribune carriers; Dorothy Roberts School of the Dance; Olmstead Studios, and others, according to the entries given Eva.

Entries for the pet show are being taken this week at the various Redwood City schools, under direction of Mrs. C. H. Wakefield, president of the Redwood City Humane Society.

The pet show proper will be in full sway immediately following the parade.

5 Slot Machines Seized During Night

Dep. Sheriffs Louis Lodi and Hugh Williams last night confiscated five slot machines in two raids.

Three machines were taken from the Peanut Farm in Woodside Glen at 10 p.m. and two more were taken from the Collins Cafe in East Palo Alto on Bayshore Hwy. half an hour later.

A band of gypsies, parked on Canada Rd. near Jefferson Ave., was ordered dispersed by Sheriff James J. McGrath yesterday—until the order was countermanded. The gypsies of which residents of the area complained were hay balers, according to Dep. Sheriff Thomas Maloney. Maloney told the hay balers to bale more hay and make less noise. There were six men in the camp.

New Station Opening Here

With Jack J. Sweetman as operator, the new Shell Oil service station located at 345 El Camino Real near Wellesley Ave. will hold its gala opening tomorrow.

The new modern station was built and is owned by Perry A. Bygdnes, Reddwood City bank executive.

JACK SWEETMAN

All kinds of Shell products will be handled, shell touring service will be available without charge, Shell credit cards will be honored, and a complete lubrication service will be maintained. The most modern of facilities have been installed to give the motorist the best service available. Luxurious rest rooms are available.

Sweetman, who has moved to 53 Finger Ave., Redwood City, with his wife and 9-year-old son, Frank, has been with the Shell Co. for three years, working in Palo Alto since 1936.

He will be assisted at the station by Bud Lanzen and Allen Gregory. The station will be open from 6 a.m. to midnight.

POLICICAL NOTES

JEPSEN HEADS GROUP BACKING JAMES ROLPH III

Hans J. Jepsen, San Francisco attorney who lives in Atherton, has been named temporary chairman of the James Rolph III for Lieutenant Governor Committee, headquarters for which have been opened at 1265 Market St., San Francisco.

Secretary is Chester R. Macphee; treasurer, Lester Hingsbergen; assistant secretaries, William A. Reardon and Jaul Jordon.

Formal opening of the headquarters is set for Monday evening when Rolph will tell the story of his campaign.

POLITICAL UNITY MEETING HEARS PROGRESS REPORTS

Encouraging progress was reported to the San Mateo County Assembly, District Council of the Federation for Political Unity, when it met last night at Hotel Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Crosthwaite reported today. The federation, Crosthwaite said, pledges cooperation "with all progressive forces in the political field."

After locking the doors on opening night of his new New York bar, Jack Dempsey discovered that 1000 glass high ball stirring rods were missing.

Aid in $6,000,000 Of Projects Sought In S. M. County

A six-million dollar government spending program in San Mateo County was in prospect today as Kenneth A. Godwin, regional PWA director, sent formal application blanks to governmental units which had previously indicated projects to be undertaken under the Roosevelt "pump-priming" policy.

Godwin stressed the fact that the forwarding of application blanks did not constitute either approval of the projects of actual allocation of funds, which are to come from legislation yet to be enacted by Congress. However the PWA office has been authorized to accept applications, he said, in line with the President's new spending policy.

MAJOR PROJECTS

Major projects in the San Mateo County:

Livestock pavilion at Bayshore City: $2,000,000.

Construction at San Francisco Airport: $2,111,500.

New city, county and school district projects in San Mateo County: $1,748,500.

Projects previously approved in San Mateo County: $118,060.

The total, $5,978,060, lists the $2000,000 county office building and a $26,700 auditorium for Bayshore City as new projects, Godwin explained, because both projects have been revised.

China reports she has received 680 planes from abroad since the outbreak of the undeclared Sino Japanese war last Summer.

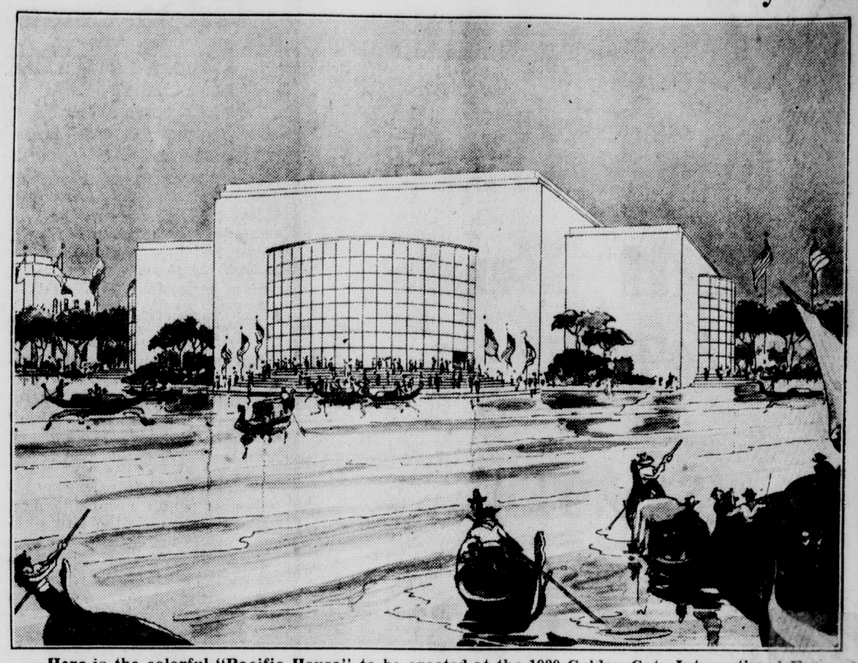
'Pacific House' at '39 Fair on S. F. Bay



Here is the colorful "Pacific House" to be erected at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay. History, culture and customs of the nations of the Pacific will be dramatized here. The building will rise on the edge of one of the picturesque lagoons on Treasure Island.

YOLO PEA PICKER STRIKE IS NOT EXPECTED TO AFFECT COASTSIDE

Fears that a strike of several hundred pea pickers in Yolo County today would have serious reverberations in San Mateo County were discounted by Agricultural Commissioner Max J. Leonard.

"I believe the Yolo County strike is the usual early season difficulty between pickers and canners," Leonard said. "They will jockey for the most favorable price, and by the time we start picking in San Mateo County the picking agreements will probably be fixed."

The Yolo County pea pickers left their work this morning when demands for higher wages were not met, according to J. T. Dudley, CIO secretary who is seeking to organize the workers in the Cannery and Agricultural Workers Union. Dudley said he believed the union had 400 members. He estimated the total number of workers at present at nearly 1000, and said efforts were being made to sign them up.

Leonard said the pea pickers in San Mateo County have never been organized.

New Market Opens On El Camino Real

Formal opening of the White Oak Market on El Camino Real at Central Ave., San Carlos, just north of the Redwood City line, is set for Saturday although the store is open for business already.

Owner is Tony Larussa. His son, Sam Larussa, is manager. Both have moved to Redwood City, having come here from Oregon.

The market, which is 70 by 50 feet in size, has grocery, fruit and vegetable, delicatessen and meat departments. Free delivery is offered.

CO-ORDINATED TRANSPORTATION PROPOSED BY SANTA FE

● The Santa Fe Transportation Company, a California corporation, an affiliate of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company, has filed four applications with the California State Railroad Commission requesting permission to operate present interstate stages in intrastate, or point to point service in California over the following routes:

1—Between San Francisco and Los Angeles via the Ridge Route, Bakersfield, Fresno, Manteca, with alternate routes to Oakland, one via Stockton and Martinez, and one via Dublin, including San Joaquin Valley branches to Hanford, Visalia and Porterville.

2—Between Los Angeles and Needles via San Bernardino and Barstow.

3—Between Los Angeles and San Diego via Fullerton and Santa Ana, with an alternate route via Long Beach and Laguna Beach.

4—Between Bakersfield and Barstow via Mojave.

● The applications, in addition, seek permission to completely co-ordinate stage and rail facilities, joint use of all stations, Harvey Eating Houses, and complete interchange of tickets. A complete co-ordination of stages and trains for the first time in transportation history.

● The accompanying map illustrates the proposals . . . the legend in the lower left-hand corner sets forth the detail.

Hog Ordinance Test in Court Due From Suit

Thomas J. Callan, Colma, rancher whose hogs have been banned by the San Francisco health department in its campaign against trichinosis, has filed two action in the superior court to force Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health director, and Tax Collector Ambrose McSweeney to issue him a certificate of sanitation and a permit to operate.

According to Asst. Dist. Atty. Daniel E. Sullivan, San Mateo County's hog ranch control ordinances will be tested by the Callan suit, and on the outcome may depend the future of the million-dollar hog raising industry in the county.

Sullivan said Callan was one of three ranchers who assertedly had failed to "clean up" following a trichinosis ban by the San Francisco health department two years ago. At that time, Sullivan said, the hog raisers banded together and asked that sanitation regulations be imposed on the industry. The result was passage of County Ordinance 431, prepared by the district attorney, Sullivan said, and lifting of the San Francisco ban.

If the ordinance fails under Callans' attack, Sullivan said, the entire industry will be in the same position it was before the law was enacted.

In response to Callan's petitions, Judge Maxwell McNutt issued an alternative writ of mandate compelling McSweeney to issue Callan a permit or show cause on May 23 why he should not do so.

MENLO PARK NEWS

Menlo Park American Legion Auxiliary Unit 443 will be hostess to 26th district this evening at 8:15 o'clock. Mrs. Jessie Zant of San Mateo, district president, will preside.

Isabelle Weeden Lindquist sang a group of soprano solos at the Independent Order of Odd Fellows Old Folks Home in the Santa Cruz Mountains Sunday, when a Mother's Day program was given.

W. H. Weeden will attend the Native Sons' Grand Parlor in San Jose next week. Mr. Weeden is the delegate of the local parlor.

A number of local Native Daughters attended the birthday dinner given by Bonita Parlor of Redwood City, at Cafe de Paris last night.

Isabelle Weeden Lindquist and her mother, Mrs. W. H. Weeden, visited relatives in Monterey Monday.

Miss Mary Thomas will come up from her home in Monterey tomorrow to attend the wedding of her school friend, Miss Ruth Douglas, on Sunday. While here Miss Thomas will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Weeden.

The school trustee election which takes place early next month to fill one vacancy will be a quiet affair. The incumbent, George Angus, will have no opposition for re-election. He is secretary of the school board.

Louis Barsotti, a resident of Menlo Park for some time, passed away suddenly on Tuesday from a heart attack. He had been ailing for several months. Barsotti was at the home of his friend, Joe Ferrando.

O. H. Olsen, a teacher in the Burlingame school department, has been chosen principal of Menlo Park Grammar School to succeed W. S. Boker, who had filled the position for 23 years. Mr. Olsen is a former Redwood City man, who, through his own efforts, achieved distinction as an educator. After being graduated from San Jose State Teachers' College, he was appointed principal of Half Moon Bay School. Mr. Olsen has an interesting family and will be welcomed to Menlo Park.

The Rev. Charles E. Fritz, recently appointed pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church, has gone to New York on business. His pulpit is being filled by a supply minister from Stanford.

Over 50 boys and girls received their first communion in the Church of the Nativity at the 8:30 o'clock mass last Sunday. The church was crowded with parents and others. After the services the youngsters enjoyed a breakfast in the church hall.

W. T. Casey, the sportsman, caught the limit in trout last week in San Francisquito Creek. The fish averaged a pound and a half in weight and measured 15 inches in length. Casey is an expert angler who knows the haunts and habits of the fish.

Adam Patterson, an employe of a Redwood City bank, is in the East, where he is to be married this week to a charming young lady. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, on their arrival home, will live in Menlo Park.

Callan asked an injunction against Dr. Gans to prevent the health department from revoking a sanitary certificate issued to him in 1936.

Dr. Gans said Callan's certificate had been revoked automatically.

"We issued him a permit last year on the understanding that during the year he would make necessary improvements to his present plant on School St., or find a new location. He has done neither, and he has lost his sanitary certificate," Dr. Gans declared.

It was Callan's claim that his $17,000 hog ranch costs $100 a day to operate, and that Dr. Gans' refusal to issue him a certificate of sanitation has prevented him from selling his hogs. He faces bankruptcy, he claims.

Labor Problem Is Considered

SAN MATEO, May 10—Agriculture and industry have one problem in common today, that of labor.

So asserted two California State Chamber of Commerce speakers last night at a dinner meeting attended by city and county officials and San Mateo Chamber of Commerce members, held in Hotel Benjamin Franklin, San Mateo.

Will B. Weston, chairman of the Central Coast Counties Agricultural Committee of the State Chamber and Santa Clara County farmer, declared that California agriculture is faced with a tremendous problem in the assimilation of thousands of workers who are flocking West from the Dust Bowl and other Eastern sections.

"At least a decade will be required for agriculture and industry to assimilate these people," Weston said.

He also declared that the Agricultural Department of the State Chamber of Commerce favors the open shop and peaceful picketing.

Problems of San Mateo Coastside growers were the basis for the talk of A. R. Willson, member of the agricultural staff of the State Chamber.

"When Mayor LaGuardia of New York visited San Francisco some time ago, I arranged a luncheon for him and a number of county farmers," Willson said. "At that time Mayor LaGuardia assured us he would eliminate the racketeers in New York, who preyed upon the wholesale merchants handling San Mateo County and other produce. On my last trip to New York I found that Mayor LaGuardia had kept his word.

"If such a situation 3000 miles away can be handled, why can't that in the immediate vicinity of where we sit tonight be met equally as successfully?"

Willson, it was pointed out, referred to a condition in San Francisco, where unloading of trucks in the wholesale produce district is confined to a group of workmen, all members of one organization.

The aqueducts of Rome at the time of the Caesars supplied 320 million gallons of water daily and were 249 miles long.

Fair 'n Warmer

Three handkerchiefs, printed with designs of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on San Francisco Bay, make up the bathing suit worn by Gloria Daily. Gloria donned the attire for a dip in the surf at Santa Cruz.

Letter Hints Billboard Suit

A hint that the California Outdoor Advertising Association may go to court over Redwood City's refusal to permit more billboards to be erected here was contained in a letter from the organization read at the meeting of the Redwood City Planning Commission Monday night.

The letter requested the commission to supply it with a copy of the recommendation made by the planners to the council that permits for new "advertising panels" be denied.

The request was referred to the council by the planners. While no definite indication was contained in the request that the recommendation was desired as evidence in contemplated court action to test validity of Redwood City's ordinance giving the council power to limit number of billboards, the request was seen by planners as a hint of possible suit.

The commission recommended to the council the granting of several requests for subdivision of lots, and recommended that a 20-foot setback be established on Harrison Ave. between Clinton and Duane Sts.

Although no formal vote was taken on the matter, the suggestion of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce that consideration be given to relaxation of building laws here appeared to meet with disfavor of members of the planning commission. Further consideration to the subject is expected to be given by the city council.

Crash Driver On Probation

Frank M. West, San Bruno, who pleaded guilty to charges of driving while under the influence of liquor and causing personal injury, was admitted to three years' probation by Judge A. R. Cotton Monday. His driver's license was revoked. West was involved in an accident in Millbrae Jan. 19 in which Clifford Gaunt of Millbrae was injured.

Sentence of Harold Thompson, Redwood City youth, on charges of passing fictitious checks and stealing an automobile, was continued one week.

Frank Nobles, ex-convict charged with assault on a San Francisco night club dancer, was given an additional week in which to enter a plea.

In Judge Maxwell McNutt's court, trial of Rexford I. Watson on charges of taking valuable equipment from a Hillsborough quarry was continued a week to be re-set.

The divorce suit of Grace vs. Ezra R. Thompson was dropped from Judge Cotton's calendar when no one appeared in court. Mrs. Thompson lives in Woodside. Her husband is a wealthy Salt Lake City coal mine operator.

Sentencing of Dance Is Delayed Again

Sentence of Benjamin Dance, young San Mateo painter, on charges of driving while drunk and causing personal injuries, was continued to Friday Monday by Judge Maxwell McNutt.

The reason, according to John E. Manders, one of Dance's attorneys, was to keep the case on the calendar until the contempt of court proceedings against George H. Chiossi, San Mateo insurance broker, have been completed.

American exports to Soviet Russia amounted to $42,900,000 in 1937, mostly in machines and industrial equipment.

Blanket, Bunk Need Revealed

Who sponsors the Youth Hostels planned in San Mateo County?

Where Will San Mateo County Hostels be?

What can you do to help?

These three questions were answered today by Miss Betty Blodgett of Los Altos, AYH field worker.

First, the San Mateo County committee was announced: County Manager E. A. Rolison, Fire Warden Bert L. Werder, Wilbur H. Doxsee and J. Elmer Morrish, Redwood City; George H. McArthur, S. A. Keyston and P. A. Oliver, San Mateo; W. T. Van Voris, Burlingame; George Dunn, Half Moon Bay; Mrs. Edward Heller, Atherton; Mrs. W. W. Holt, Hillsborough; James V Neuman and Mrs. F. Wells Pleas, Woodside.

Second, it was disclosed that a chain of three overnight stopping places will be ready for use about June 1 where young people, hikers or cyclists, members of the AYH, may have a bunk, straw mattress, and cooking place, under proper supervision.

The three hostels, situated about 15 miles apart and convenient to cars or bus at start and finish of the circuit, will be located as follows: Montara Hostel, with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jenkins in charge; Purissima Creek Hostel, in Purissima Canyon, with Mr. and Mrs. William Pimentel in charge; Skyline Hostel, at Skyline Blvd. and Bear Gulch Rd. junction, Mr. and Mrs. George Arata in charge.

Third, there is need for only two things: Bunks and blankets. Special double wood-frame metal bunks with straw tick mattresses have been designed to be furnished at cost by Simmons Co. and to be installed by volunteer help. Total cost of these is $7.50 for each double bunk. Two woolen blankets, new or used, are needed for each bed.

Anyone who can donate cost of either, or supply a used blanket, is asked to send a check to Mrs. George N. Keyston, treasurer, 809 Bromfield Rd., San Mateo, or Manager J. Elmer Morrish, First National Bank, Redwood City, or telephone directions to call for money or blankets to the chamber of commerce in Redwood City, Burlingame or San Mateo.

Inquiries may be addressed to Miss Blodgett in care of any of the chambers.

Pioneers Pallbearers At Offermann Rites

Fellow pioneers were pallbearers on Monday when funeral services were held for Mrs. Johanna Offermann, who passed away Friday night at her home at 1018 Main St.

Serving as pallbearers were Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell, County Recorder T. Clark Rice, Supervisor John W. Poole, Mayor Asa Hull of San Carlos, former Redwood City Mayor C. G. Lambert, and Henry McGarvey.

Following the services, conducted at the residence with Layng & Tinney service and with the Rev. Schuyler Pratt officiating, burial took place privately at Olivet Memorial Park, Colma.

Hearing on Salary Budget Set May 24

Public hearings on the 1938-39 county salary ordinance will be scheduled for May 24, according to an announcement by County Executive E. A. Rolison.

Under the provisions of the charter, he said, the ordinance must be adopted by the board of supervisors by May 30. All departments have been requested to forward their salary budgets by May 16.

The whole 1938-39 budget must be prepared by July 10, he said.

COMPREHENSIVE EXPENDITURE SURVEY MADE OF CITY, COUNTY

One of the most comprehensive expenditure surveys ever made for Redwood City and San Mateo County has just been completed under supervision of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce and forwarded to Western Division headquarters, Chamber of Commerce of the United States, in San Francisco.

Embracing 15 pages, the survey took several weeks to complete. Aiding Secretary-Manager Roscoe D. Wyatt in the compilation were former Mayor Paul A. McCarthy, City Manager C. L. Dimmitt, County Manager E. A. Rolison, Assessor Daniel Flynn, Tax Collector Ambrose McSweeney, Deputy Controller George Filbert, Recorder T. Clark Rice, Treasurer A. H. Sagehorn, City Clerk B. E. Myers, Police Chief C. L. Collins, Fire Chief Mark E. Ryan, Bldg. Insptr. I. C. Drathman, Secty. James Packwood of Health Director C. C. Gans' county office, County Engineer U. S. Marshall, Principal A. C. Argo of Sequoia High School, and Redwood City Dist. School Supt. Andrew Spinas.

According to Manager Leonard E. Read of the U. S. chamber, the information, similar to that being gathered in the seven western states, will be used in a "really intelligent taxation program dealing with municipal, school and special districts and county expenditures."

Some of the statistical information contained in the survey:

Redwood City, population 1930, 8962; 1937 estimate, 12,928.

Area of municipality, 5.11 square miles.

Estimated annual private income, $7,000,000.

Estimated wealth, $30,000,000.

Assessed valuation, $14,254,385.

Bonded indebtedness, $747,484.53.

Expenditures of all city and county departments over a period of years.

Breakdown of salaries (average, high and low, paid various city and county officials.

School enrollment in Redwood City: 100 kindergarten; 1900 in elementary school; 1694 in high school.

Nurnberg had a needle-making industry as early as 1370.

Senior Talks Are Replaced

Vocal and musical selections by student talent will this year replace the usual addresses by senior students at the annual commencement exercises at Sequoia High School.

Because so few seniors evinced interest in tryouts for commencement speakers and because of the large amount of musical and vocal talent available in the senior class, this change has been voted by the committee on graduation, according to Mrs. John D. Peck, public speaking instructor.

Betty Atcheson, who acted as chairman of the representatives sent by Sequoia High School to the California Model Youth Legislature over the week-end in San Francisco, has been chosen by the legislative group to represent this district in further deliberations on bills to be presented to the California Assembly.

Representatives of various districts which participated in the week-end will meet later in the year, probably in Sacramento, to perfect the bills the youth legislature accepted for submission to the state legislative body.

Miss Atcheson and John Di Franco acted as "senators" for the Sequoia delegation. "Assemblymen" were Barbara Pierce, William Powell, Margaret Steele, Clara Arthur, Anita Canete, Willis Rosser, William Libby, Frank Thompson and Clyde Plants.

The bill submitted by the Sequoians proposing free tuberculosis tests for all high school students in the state was incorporated in a general insurance bill passed by the youth legislature.

The young people, who heard talks on youth problems by prominent speakers, conducted the business of their meeting in the regular routine of an asesmbly session, with special committees. For diversion they enjoyed a boat ride on San Francisco Bay by night, and the Sequoia delegation enjoyed also a Japanese dinner.

The youth legislature, initiated by the Southern California Christian Youth Council and based on a national model youth legislature held last year in Milwaukee, was arranged "for the interchange of ideas, sharing of problems and discussion of solutions of youth problems, for the examining of the workings of the legislative system and to provide practical experience and participation in the forms of government by which youth's problems must ultimately be solved."

The Ocean Shore Railway Historical Society, which the middle of April presented a railroad display at Sequoia High School, has underway plans for other displays in the near future.

In the downstairs show case at the school will be presented each week various articles dealing with railroads in general and with them will be detailed explanations.

President of the society is Fred Hartwell.

The Sequoia High School freshman social living class taught by Mrs. Petra Cooper visited the Sunlite Bakery in San Jose recently to watch the process of bread making.

Leading the Sequoia High School sophomore class in number of service points earned to date in his high school career is Walter Moore, with 46 points. Others scoring high are Dolly Rice with 33, David Thompson with 27, Laurence Nieri with 24, Russell Fox with 24, Ward Walkup with 21, Rita Robaard with 21, Elsie Paron with 22 and Benny Iijima with 20.

Equipment for enlarging prints is being built by the Sequoia High School Camera Club, which, although organized but recently, has already equipped a dark room at the school. President of the group is Stanley Dodge; faculty adviser, Hugo Rustad.

Dr. Bertha Mason of San Jose State College spoke to Sequoia High School junior and senior girls at a special assembly yesterday, dealing with personal problems of the high school-age girl.

Suspended Term Won On Assault Charges

Russ Reiserer, 510 Roosevelt Ave., Redwood City, was free today under a suspended court sentence and his agreement to stay out of San Mateo County for six months.

At a hearing in Judge Hugh F. Mullin's court Monday, Dep. Dist. Atty. Burress Karmel moved that the original charge of assault to commit murder, signed by Frank McGuire, San Mateo plumber, be reduced to simple assault. The motion was granted and Reiserer pleaded guilty to the lesser charge.

Judge Mullin sentenced Reiserer to 30 days in the county jail and suspended the sentence. Reiserer is a yard master for Southern Pacific Co., who have transferred him to Sacramento, according to Karmel.

Charles Ross, 54, South San Francisco laborer, was arrested last night on charges of lewd and lascivious conduct before a minor, an 11-year-old South San Francisco girl. Ross and the girl were questioned this morning by Dep. Dist. Atty. Louis B. Dematteis. Ross was arrested by Chief of Police Louis Belloni of South San Francisco

Trial of Joseph Castro, 74, retired, also from South San Francisco, on a similar charge is scheduled tomorrow in the superior court.

Local School's 'Hour of Music' Program Told

McKinley School's orchestra and glee club will join this evening in presenting "An Hour of Music" in the school auditorium, starting at 8 o'clock as a benefit to raise funds for purchase of capes for the musical organizations.

Ronald R. Spink, instrumental music teacher, and Francis McQuilkin, vocal instructor, under whose direction the entertainment is being staged, announced the program today as follows:

1. Orchestra: March, "On Parade;" "Dance," and "Desert Caravan," all by Zamecnik.
2. Remarks, Dist. Supt. Andrew Spinas.
3. Glee club: "Dreams of Love," by Listz; "Plantation Lullaby," by Geibel, and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," by Friedman.
4. Orchestra: Tone poem, "Easter Sunrise," Lowell; Sobre Las Olas, "Over the Waves Waltz," by Rosas.
5. Presentation of McKinley School Music Banner, by Duncan Reynard; acceptance, Student Body Pres. Warren Saltzman.
6. Orchestra: Selection, "Operatic Stars," DeLamater; waltz, "Merry Widow," Lehar, and closing medley, "Chaser March," DeLamater.

Admission to the program is 15 cents.

Peninsulans Named On State C. C. Board

Election of four Peninsula residents to the board of directors of the California State Chamber of Commerce was announced here following the organization's annual meeting in San Francisco. Charles R. Blyth of Burlingame was one of three new directors. Re-elected were R. K. Davies of Atherton, L. M. Giannini of Hillsborough, and A. E. Roth of Palo Alto.

At Grasse, the perfume city of the Mediterranean, the scent industry uses 4,000,000 pounds of orange blossoms and 3,000,000 pounds of rose leaves every year.

Van Firm Official Sued by Laundress

Reed J. Bekins, Hillsborough, executive of the Bekins Van and Storage Co, was named as one of the defendants in a $10,524 damage suit filed in superior court Tuesday by Mrs. Mary Moore, Burlingame, and her husband, William.

Mrs. Moore claims that she was employed in the Bekins home at 922 Eucalyptus Ave. as a laundress in May of last year. On May 11, her complaint declares, she entered the laundry with a full basket of clothes, fell on an improperly constructed platform and injured her knee.

American Employers' Insurance Co., another defendant, paid her hospitalization and medical costs, plus compensation which amounted to $40 less than her normal earnings, Mrs. Moore states.

Atherton Chauffeur Speeds, Pays Fine

Charles C. Cropley, chauffeur for Louis Lurie, Walsh Rd., Atherton, paid a $25 fine in Judge Edward I. McAuliffe's court for speeding 70 miles an hour. The $25 fine was the largest collected in the traffic court sessions last week.

Three speeders paid $5 each. They were G. Brogato, San Mateo; William J. Isaacson and Herman J. Walther of San Francisco. Fined $2.50 each for speeding were John G. Gordon, San Jose, and Alyce W. Burke, San Francisco.

Ira D. Slater, soldier at Hamilton Field, Marin County, paid $1 for driving with four in the front seat of his coupe.

PLANS TO STAMPEDE SONS OF THOSE OLD COWHANDS

Sons of the West's old cowhands stampede in the direction of King City when Miss Helen Eade, daughter of one of Monterey County's largest cattlemen, smiles an invitation to attend the King City Stampede, May 14 and 15. Miss Eade is sweetheart and official hostess for the celebration.

SPORTSMEN DECLINE TO INDORSE COUNTY GAME WARDEN PROPOSAL

A campaign to induce the board of supervisors to put a fish and game warden on the county payroll failed to win support Monday night of the Redwood City Sportsmen's Club.

The club tabled a motion indorsing the movement until it could be discovered whether or not the State Fish & Game Commission would appoint another warden for the county.

Richard O. Bell, president of the club, pointed out that no warden has been appointed to succeed the late McPherson Lowe.

Six postcards were on file for the next meeting of the board of supervisors, indorsing the campaign for a county game warden. Three were from Redwood City and three from Menlo Park.

A typical postcard read: "Our law abiding sportsmen need further protection against the illegal methods of the outlaws who persist in destroying our wild life."

Bell doubted that justice court fines collected from offenders arrested by a county warden would be sufficient to offset the new county employe's salary.

'WILLIE THE WHALE' STILL HERE

Junior Mariners Sight Mammal Near Bridge On Cruise From Palo Alto

Redwood City's "Willie the Whale" isn't dead after all.

The massive mammal of multitudinous misstatements has been sighted again only a short distance from the entrance to the Port of Redwood City.

This time, cavorting in the bay just as he was when first seen Feb. 4 by a crew from the Pacific Portland Cement Co. plant, Willie was espied by the young sailors of the Meta K, motor-sail boat used by Capt. L. F. Bosshardt's group of junior mariners who are studying at the local yacht harbor for careers on the sea.

The occasion was Sunday about 8 a.m., Captain Bosshardt, who lives on Whipple Rd., disclosed today. The dozen boys, without their skipper, but with First Mate Joseph Elkins, 21, and Second Mate Arthur Pringle, 25, both of Redwood City, in charge, were returning alone from Palo Alto after an overnight cruise when they saw the whale just north of Dumbarton Bridge. True sailors that they have become, the lads entered the event in the log of the Meta K, 46-foot boat owned by former County Engineer George Kneese but loaned to the junior mariners. They also charted the whale, which they saw four times within half an hour.

When the whale was dead ahead on first sight, and only two ship lengths away, the boys changed their course. Thereafter, the whale appeared to be going the same direction as the boat. Each time he came up fish appeared to rise out of the water with him, the boys told Captain Bosshardt, as if the mammal were following a school of fish. The water would become muddy, also, as if he touched bottom at times.

It was just three months ago today that Willie the Whale was supposed to have crawled up on San Francisco's beach and died. There was no doubt that it was A whale which died there. But either it was not Redwood City's Willie, or else there's a new whale cavorting in the southern part of San Francisco Bay. Cement company crews have seen no whales since death of the one at San Francisco.

Perhaps Willie was just waiting for the smell of the whale San Francisco mess to blow over before reappearing to worry bay yachtsmen—and even health authorities should the mass of blubber flounder on San Mateo County shores.

Shakespeare Contest Winners Selected

Four Sequoia High School students—two boys and two girls—were awarded editions of Shakespeare's works Tuesday by the high school library as the result of winning the school's Shakespeare contest, revived this year by the Sequoia drama department after having been abandoned for two years.

The winners were, for girls, Lymina Cheney, first, and Dolores Carbine, second; for boys, Alfred Newman, first, and Robert Gleason, second. Miss Cheney read lines of Queen Ann from "Richard III;" Miss Carbine, lines of Portia from "Merchant of Venice;" Newman, lines of King Claudius from "Hamlet," and Gleason, lines of Hamlet from "Hamlet."

Judges were Mrs. John D. Peck, Mrs. Eyla Wooldridge and Miss Angelina Burns, librarian.

Forty-two students from the Sequoia High School cooking classes taught by Miss Marjorie Landers made a trip to San Francisco yesterday to visit the Best Foods Co. plant and the Langendorf Bakery. They were accompanied by Miss Landers. Lunch was enjoyed in Golden Gate Park.

Girl, Boy Scouts In Clean-Up Contest

Girl Scouts as well as Boy Scouts will be in the coming contest being sponsored by the citizens' "Clean Up During 1938" committee.

This was announced here by Field Executive J. Franklin Reid of the Boy Scouts after a conference with Mrs. Marcella Dill, director of the Girl Scouts.

The scouts will act as "salesmen," endeavoring to persuade property owners to clean up, paint up, fix up or otherwise improve unsightly holdings. The troop securing the most points in the contest will gain a cash award. So far $25 in cash has been put up, but the citizens' committee is hoping for gifts increasing this amount.

Rules for the contest are being evolved by scout leaders and will be announced shortly, Executive Reid said.

M'Grath Wins In Conference

In a wire to San Jose, Congressman John J. McGrath renewed hopes this week that Sunnyvale air base might again house a navy dirigible.

A $3,000,000 appropriation for construction and operation of a dirigible was reinserted in the navy appropriation bill at a recent Senate and House conference, McGrath said.

The original appropriation was stricken from the Senate bill after Comm. C. E. Rosendahl urged that it be increased to $20,000,000.

The Sistine chapel, private chapel of the popes in the Vatican, was built for Sixtus IV in 1473.

B. B. MEEK ACREAGE SOLD

Laura H. Meek, widow of the late B. B. Meek, former state highway commission chairman, yesterday sold six acres of the Meek estate in Atherton to Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Evans of Reno. According to California Pacific Title & Trust Co., which recorded the deed Evans intends to erect a $30,000 home. He flew back to Reno after signing the necessary papers to complete the deal. Price of the land was $12,500.

Dog Vaccination Ordered at M.P. In Rabies Move

MENLO PARK, May 11—Impressed with persistence of rabies cases in San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties, the Menlo Park City Council last night ordered the vaccination of all dogs against the disease. Vaccination certificates must accompany applications for dog licenses, beginning with the next fiscal year.

Police Commissioner Henry Carroll recommended the move, pointing out that the extra administrative work required would be well repaid by the protection and the possible savings in expenditures for Pasteur treatments.

An arrangement will be effected with City Health Officer R. J. Gerlough, under which the total cost of dog license and vaccination will be $2, Carroll said.

Decision on the application of the Foster & Kleiser advertising Co. to erect two additional outdoor billboards in the community was put over to the next meeting. Fred Morton appeared as the billboard company's representative and was warned that if a sign permit were granted now in accordance with the existing city ordinance, it would probably be withdrawn after June 30.

Morton attacked the supporters of anti-billboard legislation in the state.

He asked the council to grant his application, since the proposed signs would be situated on commercially-zoned areas.

Flood Estate Suit Settlement Reached

Settlement of an attorney's suit for a share of the reputed $1,000,000 obtained by Mrs. Constance May Gavin of Los Angeles from the James L. Flood Estate was disclosed in the state district court in San Francisco Monday.

The court by stipulation dismissed an appeal brought by Eugene Aureguy, former investigator for Mrs. Gavin, from a jury award of $75,000 won in 1936 by George K. Ford, attorney.

Ford, whom Mrs. Gavin replaced with another attorney before she won the settlement in Redwood City as a "daughter's share" of the Flood mining millions, sued both Aureguy and Mrs. Gavin. The jury in returning the verdict, exempted Mrs. Gavin from liability.

HERE IS TEXT OF RESOLUTION FOR CAMPAIGN

The Eagles' resolution which the city council adopted to make official the "Clean Up During 1938" campaign reads as follows:

Whereas, the Golden Gate International Exposition will be held in 1939 on the man-made island in San Francisco Bay to commemorate the completion of the world's two largest bridges—the Golden Gate Bridge and the San Francisco-Oakland Bridge, and

Whereas, many visitors from all over the nation and from all parts of the world will stay and visit in the cities around San Francisco Bay, and

Whereas, visitors are usually very critical of the community in which they choose to live or visit temporarily, and

Whereas, Redwood City has a large number of dilapidated buildings, barns, sheds and other structures which have outlived their usefulness, also broken fences, unpainted buildings, treeless streets and cluttered alleys;

Now, Therefore, be it resolved, and it is hereby resolved, that the Fraternal Order of Eagles of Redwood City Aerie No. 418, through its committee, respectfully urges the City Council of Redwood City to adopt a "clean-up during 1938" campaign that will insure Redwood City of being a bright, spick and span city for our visitors in 1939.

Coastside Teacher Heads Principals

John L. Carter of Half Moon Bay Tuesday was elected president of San Mateo County Elementary Principals' Association for the coming year to succeed Mrs. Lauretta Paulsen, principal of Redwood City's McKinley Intermediate School.

Serving with Carter will be Miss Marie Traynor of Jefferson Elementary School in Daly City, vice president, and Miss Clara Bolei of Fremont School, Menlo Park, who was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Principal speaker at last night's meeting, held at Dominic's at Half Moon Bay, was County Supt. of Schools Pansy Jewett Abbott, who told highlights of her recent trip to Atlantic City, where she attended a school administrators' national convention.

New Equipment For Flood Park Urged on Board

The County Recreation Commission late Tuesday recommended that about $15,000 remaining in the county's land acquisition fund be applied to the balance due for land at Thornton Beach on the coastside and Flood Park, located just south of Redwood City on the old Flood estate.

According to Planning Adviser Ronald Campbell, only $1200 will be required to complete payments on the Flood Park property. The balance will be applied to Thornton Beach, leaving a small portion of the time-contract payments to be met. By paying for the land now the county will escape interest charges, he pointed out.

The commission also recommended that benches and tables be moved from Memorial Park to Flood Park to make the area available to picnic parties this summer.

On recommendation of Commissioner Sam D. Merk, Campbell will select five or six proposed picnic areas of one acre each bordering San Mateo County's main scenic highways. The roadside parks, it was explained, will allow picnic parties to gather off the highway rights-of-way.

The commission also studied the advisability of establishing a park on property already owned by the county near the Relief Home on Crystal Springs Rd.

Shoe factories within a 150-mile radius of St. Louis produced 72,000,000 pairs of shoes in 1937 with a wholesale value of $165,000,000.

"Euridic," the first opera, was presented at Florence in 1600.

Second Well Planned By Coast Oil Firm

HALF MOON BAY, May 11—That the Wilshire Oil Co., encouraged by the results of tests on its Half Moon Bay wildcat well, may sink a second well to a depth of 10,000 feet to reach the Miocene age strata, was revealed today in San Francisco.

Start of operations on the second well, to be sunk on the 2300-acre section the company now has under lease, will be in May or June, company officials said as they formally announced definite plans.

Tests at the first well have been so encouraging that oil circles are keeping a close eye on the situation with a view to the possibility of a Coastside oil boom, long a county "dream," but now distinctly a possibility.

San Mateo Teacher Sues Over Tenure

Faith Sutcliffe, former member of the San Mateo Union High School faculty, has sued the school district for $2418 back salary and demanded reinstatement. She claims she was unlawfully discharged June 11, 1937, by the high school board.

She was employed for two years starting in 1931 at $2100 a year, she said in her complaint in the superior court. By a pre-arranged plan, she states, she was transferred to Palo Alto High School for one year, then returned to San Mateo for two more years.

Sole purpose of the transfer and the discharge, she claims, was "breaking the tenure of the plaintiff" to prevent her from becoming a permanent teacher under the three-year provision of the tenure act.
